Personal.

Mr. A. B. Carr, of that magnificent dry goods house, J. R. Anderson & Co. will leave for New York to-morrow morning. He will purchase largely. Our friend Aaron is noted for his taste and skill in selecting goods, therefore a choice stock may be expected.

Miss Ella W. Cabanis, of Hopkinsville, Ky., teacher of music and calligraphy, arrived yesterday morning. She comes highly recommended, and we bespeak for the school a liberal patronage.

Dr. J. A. Dickey, of the City Drug Store has just returned from a business trip to Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Wilmington, Del. He purchased a splendid stock.

Mr. Jos. L. King has returned from the eastern cities. He purchased a nice stock of books.

Gen. Inboden, of Wise, and Mr. Jerome Duff are at the Va. House.

Mr. A. S. Gump, the clothier, returned last Friday with a splendid lot of clothing and furnishing goods.

Rev. Mr. Lowmance, Methodist minister of Starkeville, Miss., has been in town a week, the guest of President Hearon.

Mr. R. C. Harris, of Fairview, Va., and Mr. J. M. Harris, of Osborne's Ford, returned last week from New York with fine stocks of goods.

Maj. Oyer continues to improve.

Mr. J. E. Aiken, of La., after a spell of typhoid fever, is visiting his friends in town.

Mr. Rupert Nukolls of Salt Lake City, Utah, is in town after a tour in Grayson.

Mr. T. C. Phillips, a lawyer of Yadin, N. C., has been spending a week with his brother, Dr. W. M. Phillips, at Wallace's, and Dr. Phillips and lady have now gone with him on a visit to N. C.

Messrs. Jonas and Jas. Kelly have gained in the Supreme Court, their heavy suit with Chas. Smith, of Russell.

Miss Ella Crockett, of Pulaski, is visiting Mr. J. T. Crockett's family.

Correction.—In a personal notice of Mr. Richard Huddleston of Bedford county, Va., a week or two ago, we stated that he was a son-in-law of Col. Jno. Oyer. We should have said brother-in-law.

Mr. J. C. Sammons of Taylorsville called to see us this morning, and will act as our agent in procuring subscribers for the News.

Is It Possible That a remedy made out of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Madder, Dandelion, &c., makes so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do? It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, pastor and doctor, lawyer and editor, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no longer. See other column.—Post.

Correction. Judge Ward requests us to correct a paragraph in the leading editorial of last week's Virginian, wherein it was affirmed, "It is said that Capt. Blair, at a meeting in Smyth county is said to have favored Gen. Terry," &c. By an inadvertence Smyth county was named instead of Wythe. It should read Wythe.

Don't Forget, that the Co-operative Store is the place to get Best Sugars, Coffees, Syrups, Flour, Meal, Graham Flour, Oat Meal, S. C. Hams, Bacon, Lard, and almost everything needed for your table.

Bloody White Top. Clark Porter, a respectable and well to do farmer on the southern border of White Top mountain probably killed last Saturday week a man named Johnson living on the adjoining farm. The parties had been engaged in a settlement and differed over 15 cents. Porter used a pocket knife and wounded Johnson in the thigh, in the back, side, shoulder and breast. Dr. Wagg was called and pronounced the case probably fatal. Porter was a man whom the late Wilburn Waters, Hermit of the White Top often lived with. Mr. Wm. Black of this county was a witness to the condition of the wounded man and has no hope of his recovery. Porter has fled.

Homicide in Russell. On the 11th inst. in New Garden Russell county, while working the road Henry Ball, a young man was killed by Henry Miller, his successful rival in a love affair. Miller had succeeded in marrying the young lady who had rejected Ball. It seems the matter was rather triumphantly alluded to by Miller, who had a year previously kicked Ball, when the latter said he could whip him, that the former could not kick him now. Miller is said to have struck Ball in the head with the handle of a road scraper he was using, knocking him down and then striking him twice in the side with it. Ball got up and with some assistance walked nearly a mile to his grand-mother's. Miller fled, but was pursued and next day captured. He is now in jail. Ball commenced vomiting blood pretty soon and died in eight hours. Miller is said to have been a peaceable, good citizen, while it is said Ball was rather a fighting character.

Bristol Female College.—The next session of this institution commences on Thursday next. President Wester informs us that his prospects were never better. It is highly gratifying to note that he has an excellent corps of teachers, who will use every exertion to further the interests of the college. Mrs. A. E. Cregar will have charge of the boarding department, and will doubtless give entire satisfaction in that capacity.

THE SEVEN SPRINGS MASS. For Sick Headache and Dyspepsia.

Reliable Testimonials. Bishop Geo. F. PIERCE says: I know one case of remarkable recovery from chronic dyspepsia. It is a "panacea" for sick headache, both to cure when it comes and to prevent if taken in time.

Dr. W. G. E. CUNNINGHAM says: We owe the health and strength we enjoy to pay, if not our life, to the "Seven Springs Mass."

Rev. R. N. PRICE says: My wife is subject to sick headaches, and for her the "Seven Springs Mass" is a Specific both, a cure and prevent.

Rev. G. C. RANKIN says: Mrs. Rankin says she cannot over estimate the value of the "Mass" in her case, and would advise everybody who suffer with sick headache to use it.

Miss E. G. MARSHALL, of Lunenburg county, Va., says: It has cured me of dyspepsia and sick headache, and now in better health than for years.

Mr. JOHN D. ROQUEMORE, of Eufaula, Ala., says: My wife is using the "Seven Springs Mass" for chronic indigestion with very happy results.

A. WARDLE, proprietor of Lynchburg News, says: My wife has been subject to severe spells of sick headache for more than twenty years, and has been entirely cured by using the Mass.

At Great Bridge this morning at the appointed hour, with his friends, and waited there until 11 o'clock, when messengers arrived from Norfolk to state that Col. Lamb was arrested. Captain Hope then drove back to the city, and was arrested and placed under bonds to keep the peace in the penalty of $25,000, the same amount of bond that Col. Lamb gave in the morning.

It is understood that the duel was to have been fought with rifles at thirty paces. The difficulty grew out of a controversy about the suspended police-officer Hitchens. Col. Lamb in his last letter, using the following offensive language:

"I never changed the sentence after it was announced, nor the order after it was written on the 23rd; nor did I ever entertain such a thought. What a sad commentary on journalism as now conducted in Virginia—a newspaper in Norfolk deliberately falsifying the public records of a court for partisan purposes."

Warrants of arrest were issued for both gentlemen by Justice Warren yesterday about 2 o'clock.
